Don't Let Heavy Metals Weigh You Down

Steel is heavy - lighten up with TriMark's weight saving solutions for access hardware without sacrificing strength for the Armor Vehicle Market. All of the TriGuard line of products are purpose designed, simple to integrate, install quickly, easy to customize and feature robust construction. If there ever was a time to switch from heavy steel products, it's now.

It's just not worth the weight!

Our product may be light in weight but...

heavy in performance
